18     ~~— SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52-06.4 of the North Dakota Century Code is~~ 19     ~~amended and reenacted as follows:~~

20     ~~— 54-52-06.4. Contribution by peace officers employed by the bureau of criminal~~ 21     ~~investigation or security officers employed by the national guard – Employer~~ 22     ~~contribution.~~

23     ~~— Each peace officer employed by the bureau of criminal investigation who is a member of the~~ 24     ~~public employees retirement system is assessed and shall pay monthly four percent of the~~ 25     ~~employee's monthly salary. Peace officer contributions increase by one percent of the member's~~ 26     ~~monthly salary beginning with the monthly reporting period of January 2012, and, with an~~ 27     ~~additional increase of one percent, beginning with the reporting period of January 2013, and~~ 28     ~~thereafter peace officer contributions decrease by one half of one percent of the member's~~ 29     ~~monthly salary beginning with the monthly reporting period of January 2018. Effective August 1,~~ 30     ~~2015, each national guard security officer who is a member of the public employee's retirement~~
31     ~~system is assessed and monthly shall pay six percent of the employee's monthly salary.~~

~~National guard security officer contributions decrease by one-half of one percent of the member's monthly salary beginning with the monthly reporting period of January 2016. The assessment must be deducted and retained out of the employee's salary in equal monthly installments. The peace officer's or security officer's employer shall contribute an amount determined by the board to be actuarially required to support the level of benefits specified in section 54-52-17. The employer's contribution must be paid from funds appropriated for salary or from any other funds available for such purposes. If the peace officer's or security officer's assessment is paid by the employer under subsection 3 of section 54-52-05, the employer shall contribute, in addition, an amount equal to the required peace officer's or security officer's assessment.~~

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Subsections 3 and 4 of section 54-52-17 of the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:

3. Retirement dates are defined as follows:

a. Normal retirement date, except for a national guard security officer or firefighter or a peace officer or correctional officer employed by the bureau of criminal investigation or by a political subdivision, is:

(1) The first day of the month next following the month in which the member attains the age of sixty-five years; or

(2) When the member has a combined total of years of service credit and years of age equal to eighty-five and has not received a retirement benefit under this chapter.

b. Normal retirement date for members first enrolled after December 31, 2015, except for a national guard security officer or firefighter, a peace officer or correctional officer employed by the bureau of criminal investigation or by a political subdivision, or a supreme court or district court judge, is:

(1) The first day of the month next following the month in which the member attains the age of sixty-five years; or

(2) When the member has a combined total of years of service credit and years of age equal to ninety and the member attains a minimum age of sixty and has not received a retirement benefit under this chapter.

c. Normal retirement date for a national guard security officer or firefighter is:

- 1           (1) The first day of the month next following the month in which the national 2           guard security officer or firefighter attains the age of fifty-five years and has 3           completed at least three eligible years of employment; or 4           (2) When the national guard security officer or firefighter has a combined total 5           of years of service credit and years of age equal to eighty-five and has not 6           received a retirement benefit under this chapter.
- 7           d. Normal retirement date for a peace officer or correctional officer employed by a 8           political subdivision is:
9           (1) The first day of the month next following the month in which the peace 10          officer or correctional officer attains the age of fifty-five years and has 11          completed at least three eligible years of employment; or 12          (2) When the peace officer or correctional officer has a combined total of years 13          of service credit and years of age equal to eighty-five and has not received 14          a retirement benefit under this chapter.
- 15          e. Normal retirement date for a peace officer employed by the bureau of criminal 16          investigation is:
17          (1) The first day of the month next following the month in which the peace 18          officer attains the age of fifty-five years and has completed at least three 19          eligible years of employment; or 20          (2) When the peace officer has a combined total of years of service credit and 21          years of age equal to eighty-five and has not received a retirement benefit 22          under this chapter.
- 23          f. Postponed retirement date is the first day of the month next following the month 24          in which the member, on or after July 1, 1977, actually severs or has severed the 25          member's employment after reaching the normal retirement date.
- 26          g. Early retirement date, except for a national guard security officer or firefighter or a 27          peace officer or correctional officer employed by the bureau of criminal 28          investigation or by a political subdivision, is the first day of the month next 29          following the month in which the member attains the age of fifty-five years and 30          has completed three years of eligible employment. For a national guard security 31          officer or firefighter, early retirement date is the first day of the month next

1 following the month in which the national guard security officer or firefighter 2 attains the age of fifty years and has completed at least three years of eligible 3 employment. For a peace officer or correctional officer employed by the bureau of 4 criminal investigation or by a political subdivision, early retirement date is the first 5 day of the month next following the month in which the peace officer or 6 correctional officer attains the age of fifty years and has completed at least three 7 years of eligible employment.

8 h. Disability retirement date is the first day of the month after a member becomes 9 permanently and totally disabled, according to medical evidence called for under 10 the rules of the board, and has completed at least one hundred eighty days of 11 eligible employment. For supreme and district court judges, permanent and total 12 disability is based solely on a judge's inability to perform judicial duties arising out 13 of physical or mental impairment, as determined pursuant to rules adopted by the 14 board or as provided by subdivision a of subsection 3 of section 27-23-03.

15 (1) A member is eligible to receive disability retirement benefits only if the 16 member:

17 ~~(1)~~ Became ~~became~~ disabled during the period of eligible employment; and 18 ~~(2)~~ Applies ~~applies~~ for disability retirement benefits within twelve months of the 19 date the member terminates employment.

20 (2) A member is eligible to continue to receive disability benefits as long as the 21 permanent and total disability continues and the member submits the 22 necessary documentation and undergoes medical testing required by the 23 board, or for as long as the member participates in a rehabilitation program 24 required by the board, or both. If the board determines that a member no 25 longer meets the eligibility definition, the board may discontinue the 26 disability retirement benefit. The board may pay the cost of any medical 27 testing or rehabilitation services ~~if the board~~ deems necessary and these 28 payments are appropriated from the retirement fund for those purposes. A 29 member's receipt of disability benefits under this section is limited to receipt 30 from the fund to which the member was actively contributing at the time the 31 member became disabled.

- 1           4.    The board shall calculate retirement benefits as follows:
- 2           a.    Normal retirement benefits for all retirees, except supreme and district court 3                 judges, reaching normal retirement date equal an annual amount, payable 4                 monthly, comprised of a service benefit and a prior service benefit, as defined in 5                 this chapter, which is determined as follows:
- 6                 (1)   Service benefit equals two percent of final average salary multiplied by the 7                         number of years of service employment.
- 8                 (2)   Prior service benefit equals two percent of final average salary multiplied by 9                         the number of years of prior service employment.
- 10          b.    Normal retirement benefits for all supreme and district court judges under the 11                 public employees retirement system reaching normal retirement date equal an 12                 annual amount, payable monthly, comprised of a benefit as defined in this 13                 chapter, determined as follows:
- 14                 (1)   Benefits must be calculated from the time of appointment or election to the 15                         bench and must equal three and one-half percent of final average salary 16                         multiplied by the first ten years of judicial service, two and eighty hundredths 17                         percent of final average salary multiplied by the second ten years of judicial 18                         service, and one and one-fourth percent of final average salary multiplied by 19                         the number of years of judicial service exceeding twenty years.
- 20                 (2)   Service benefits must include, in addition, an amount equal to the percent 21                         specified in subdivision a of final average salary multiplied by the number of 22                         years of nonjudicial employee service and employment.
- 23          c.    Postponed retirement benefits are calculated as for single life benefits for those 24                 members who retired on or after July 1, 1977.
- 25          d.    Early retirement benefits are calculated as for single life benefits accrued to the 26                 date of termination of employment, but must be actuarially reduced to account for 27                 benefit payments beginning ~~prior to~~before the normal retirement date, ~~which is~~ 28                 ~~the earlier of age sixty-five or the age at which current service plus age equals~~ 29                 ~~eighty-five~~as determined under subsection 3. Except for a national guard security 30                 officer or firefighter, a peace officer or correctional officer employed by the bureau 31                 of criminal investigation or by a political subdivision, or a supreme court or district

1 court judge, early retirement benefits for members first enrolled after December 2 31, 2015, are calculated for single life benefits accrued to the date of termination 3 of employment, but must be reduced by fixed rate of eight percent per year to 4 account for benefit payments beginning before the normal retirement date. A 5 retiree, other than a supreme or district court judge, is eligible for early retirement 6 benefits only after having completed three years of eligible employment. A 7 supreme or district court judge retiree is eligible for early retirement benefits only 8 after having completed five years of eligible employment.

- 9 e. Except for supreme and district court judges, disability retirement benefits are 10 twenty-five percent of the member's final average salary. Disability retirement 11 benefits for supreme and district court judges are seventy percent of final 12 average salary reduced by the member's primary social security benefits and by 13 any workforce safety and insurance benefits paid. The minimum monthly 14 disability retirement benefit under this section is one hundred dollars.

15 SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Subsection 4 of section 54-52-28 of the North Dakota Century 16 Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 17 4. The rollover rules under section 401(a)(31) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, 18 a distributee may elect to have an eligible rollover distribution, as defined in 19 section 402(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code, paid in a direct rollover to an eligible 20 retirement plan, as defined in section 402(c)(8)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code, 21 specified by the distributee. For purposes of this section, "distributee" includes a 22 beneficiary, other than a spouse, of a deceased member, provided however, in the 23 case of a beneficiary other than a spouse, the direct rollover may be made only to an 24 individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity described in section 408 25 or 408A of the Internal Revenue Code which is established on behalf of the beneficiary 26 and will be treated as an inherited individual retirement account or individual 27 retirement annuity under section 402(c)(11) of the Internal Revenue Code.

28 SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is 29 amended and reenacted as follows:

1           54-52.1-03. Employee participation in plan - Employee to furnish information -
2 Benefits to continue upon retirement or termination.

- 3           1. Any eligible employee may be enrolled in the uniform group insurance program 4           created by this chapter by requesting enrollment with the employing department. If an 5           eligible employee does not enroll in the uniform group insurance program at the time 6           of beginning employment, in order to enroll at a later time the eligible employee must 7           meet minimum requirements established by the board. An employing department may 8           not require an active eligible employee to request coverage under the uniform group 9           insurance program as a prerequisite to receive the minimum employer-paid life 10          insurance benefits coverage or employee assistance program benefits coverage.
- 11          2. ~~Within five days after the expiration of the payroll period during which enrollment was~~ 12          ~~requested, the employing department shall enroll the employee with the board. The~~ 13          ~~employee's insurance coverage becomes effective on the date of enrollment.~~
- 14          3. A retiree who has accepted a periodic distribution from the defined contribution 15          retirement plan pursuant to section 54-52.6-13 who the board determines is eligible for 16          participation in the uniform group insurance program or has accepted a retirement 17          allowance from the public employees retirement system, the highway patrolmen's 18          retirement system, the teachers' insurance and annuity association of America - 19          college retirement equities fund for service credit earned while employed by North 20          Dakota institutions of higher education, the retirement system established by job 21          service North Dakota under section 52-11-01, the judges' retirement system 22          established under chapter 27-17, or the teachers' fund for retirement may elect to 23          participate in the uniform group under this chapter without meeting minimum 24          requirements at age sixty-five, when the member's spouse reaches age sixty-five, 25          upon the receipt of a benefit, or when the spouse terminates employment. If a retiree 26          or surviving spouse does not elect to participate at the times specified in this 27          subsection, the retiree or surviving spouse must meet the minimum requirements 28          established by the board. Subject to sections 54-52.1-03.2 and 54-52.1-03.3, each 29          retiree or surviving spouse shall pay directly to the board the premiums in effect for the 30          coverage then being provided. A retiree or surviving spouse who has met the initial 31          eligibility requirements of this subsection to begin participation in the uniform group

1 insurance program remains eligible as long as the retiree maintains the retiree's 2 participation in the program by paying the required premium pursuant to rules adopted 3 by the board.

4 4.3. Upon the termination of employment when the employee is not eligible to participate 5 under subsection 32 or 54 or applicable federal law, that employee cannot continue as 6 a member of the uniform group.

7 5.4. A member or former member of the legislative assembly or that ~~person's~~individual's 8 surviving spouse may elect to continue membership in the uniform group within the 9 applicable time limitations after either termination of eligible employment as a member 10 of the legislative assembly or termination of other eligible employment or, for a 11 surviving spouse, upon the death of the member or former member of the legislative 12 assembly. The member or former member of the legislative assembly or that 13 ~~person's~~individual's surviving spouse shall pay the premiums in effect for the coverage 14 provided directly to the board.

15 6.5. Each eligible employee requesting enrollment shall furnish the appropriate 16 ~~person~~individual in the employing department, board, or agency with such information 17 and in such form as prescribed by the board to enable the enrollment of the employee, 18 or employee and dependents, in the uniform group insurance program created by this 19 chapter.

20 7.6. If the participating employee is a faculty member in a state charitable, penal, or 21 educational institution who receives a salary or wages on less than a twelve-month 22 basis and has signed a contract to teach for the next ensuing school year, the agency 23 shall make arrangements to include that employee in the insurance program on a 24 twelve-month basis and make the contribution authorized by this section for each 25 month of the twelve-month period.

26 SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 54-52.1-03.3 of the North Dakota
27 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

28 1. The following ~~persons~~individuals are entitled to receive credit for hospital and medical 29 benefits coverage and prescription drug coverage under any health insurance program 30 and dental, vision, and long-term care benefits coverage under the uniform group 31 insurance program under subsection 2:

- 1           a. A member or surviving spouse of the highway patrolmen's retirement system is 2           eligible for the credit beginning on the date retirement benefits are effective
3           ~~unless the premium is billed to the employer.~~
- 4           b. A member or surviving spouse of the public employees retirement system is 5           eligible for the credit beginning on the date retirement benefits are effective
6           ~~unless the premium is billed to the employer.~~
- 7           c. A member or surviving spouse of the retirement program established by job 8           service North Dakota under section 52-11-01 receiving retirement benefits is 9           eligible for the credit beginning on the date retirement benefits are effective
10          ~~unless the premium is billed to the employer.~~
- 11          d. A retired judge or surviving spouse receiving retirement benefits under the 12          retirement program established under chapter 27-17 is eligible for the credit 13          beginning on the date retirement benefits are effective ~~unless the premium is~~ 14          ~~billed to the employer.~~
- 15          e. A former participating member of the defined contribution retirement plan 16          receiving retirement benefits, or the surviving spouse of a former participating 17          member of that retirement plan who was eligible to receive or was receiving 18          benefits, under section 54-52.6-13, is eligible as determined by the board 19          pursuant to its rules.

20          SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52.1-03.4 of the North Dakota Century Code is 21          amended and reenacted as follows:

22          54-52.1-03.4. Temporary employees and employees on unpaid leave of absence.

23          1. A temporary employee employed before August 1, 2007, may elect to participate in the 24          uniform group insurance program by completing the necessary enrollment forms and 25          qualifying under the medical underwriting requirements of the program if such election 26          is made before January 1, 2015, and if the temporary employee is participating in the 27          uniform group insurance program on January 1, 2015.

28          2. In order for a temporary employee employed after July 31, 2007, to qualify to 29          participate in the uniform group insurance program, the employee must be employed 30          at least twenty hours per week; must be employed at least twenty weeks each year of 31          employment; must make the election to participate before January 1, 2015; and must

1 be participating in the uniform group insurance program as of January 1, 2015. ~~To be~~ 2 ~~eligible to participate in the uniform group insurance program;~~

3 3. A temporary employee first employed after December 31, 2014, or any temporary 4 employee employed before the effective date of this section of this Act but not 5 participating in the uniform group insurance program as of January 1, 2015, must meet 6 the definition of a full-time employee under section 4980H(c)(4) of the Internal 7 Revenue Code [26 U.S.C. 4980H(c)(4)] on the effective date of this section of this Act.
8 does not qualify to participate in the uniform group insurance program, unless the 9 employee is employed at least thirty hours per week for at least twenty weeks each 10 year of employment. Notwithstanding contrary provisions of this subsection, a 11 temporary employee participating in the uniform group insurance program on the 12 effective date of this section of this Act remains eligible through the end of the 13 calendar year during which the effective date of this section of this Act occurs and after 14 that calendar year the temporary employee is subject to the eligibility provisions of 15 subsection 1, 2, or 3, as applicable.

16 4. Monthly, the temporary employee or the temporary employee's employer shall pay to 17 the board the premiums in effect for the coverage being provided. In the case of a 18 temporary employee who is an applicable taxpayer as defined in section 36B(c)(1)(A) 19 of the Internal Revenue Code [26 U.S.C. 36B(c)(1)(A)], the temporary employee's 20 required contribution for medical and hospital benefits self-only coverage may not 21 exceed the maximum employee required contribution specified under section 36B(c) 22 (2)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code [26 U.S.C. 36B(c)(2)(C)], and the employer shall 23 pay any difference between the maximum employee required contribution for medical 24 and hospital benefits self-only coverage and the cost of the premiums in effect for this 25 coverage. An employer may pay health or life insurance premiums for a permanent 26 employee on an unpaid leave of absence. A political subdivision, department, board, 27 or agency may make a contribution for coverage under this section.

28 SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 54-52.1-18 of the North Dakota
29 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

30 2. Health savings account fees for participating state employees must be paid by the 31 employer.

- 1           a. Except as provided in subdivision b, subject to the limits of section 223(b) of the 2           Internal Revenue Code [26 U.S.C. 233(b)], the difference between the cost of the 3           single and family premium for eligible state employees under section 54-52.1-06 4           and the premium for those employees electing to participate under the 5           high-deductible health plan under this section must be deposited in a health 6           savings account for the benefit of each participating employee.
- 7           b. If the public employees retirement system is unable to establish a health savings 8           account due to the employee's ineligibility under federal or state law or due to 9           failure of the employee to provide necessary information in order to establish the 10          account, the system is not responsible for depositing the health savings account 11          contribution. The member will remain a participant in the high-deductible health 12          plan regardless of whether a health savings account is established.
- 13          c. If a member closes the health savings account established for that member 14          under this section, the system is not responsible for depositing the health savings 15          account contribution after that closure.

16          SECTION 9. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52.6-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is 17          amended and reenacted as follows:

18          54-52.6-06. Administrative expenses - Continuing appropriation.

19          ~~The Participating members shall pay the administrative expenses of the plan must be paid-~~ 20          ~~by the participating members~~ in a manner determined by the board. The board, or vendors 21          contracted for by the board, may charge reasonable administrative expenses and deduct those 22          expenses from a participating member's account in the defined contribution retirement plan 23          established under this chapter. The board may also pay the administrative expenses of the plan 24          from fines and fees collected from vendors in a manner determined by the board. The board 25          shall place vendor fines and fees and any money deducted from participating members' 26          accounts in an administrative expenses account with the state treasurer. The board may also 27          use funds from the payroll clearing account established pursuant to section 54-52.3-03 to pay 28          for consulting expenses. All moneys in the payroll clearing account, not otherwise appropriated, 29          or so much of the moneys as may be necessary, are appropriated to the board on a continuing 30          basis for the purpose of retaining a consultant as required for the administration of this chapter.

1           SECTION 10. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 54-52.6-09 of the North Dakota
2 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3           2. The employer shall contribute an amount equal to four and twelve-hundredths percent 4 of the monthly salary or wage of a participating member. Employer contributions 5 increase by one percent of the monthly salary or wage of a participating member 6 beginning with the monthly reporting period of January 2012, and with an additional 7 increase of one percent, beginning with the monthly reporting period of January 2013, 8 and with an additional increase of one percent, beginning with the monthly reporting 9 period of January 2014. If the employee's contribution is paid by the employer under 10 subsection 3, the employer shall contribute, in addition, an amount equal to the 11 required employee's contribution. ~~The Monthly, the employer shall pay monthly such~~ 12 ~~contribution into the participating member's account from its the employer's funds~~ 13 ~~appropriated for payroll and salary or any other funds available for such purposes. If~~ 14 ~~the employer fails to pay the contributions monthly, it the employer is subject to a civil~~ 15 ~~penalty of fifty dollars and, as interest, one percent of the amount due for each month~~ 16 ~~of delay or fraction thereof after the payment became due. In lieu of assessing a civil~~ 17 ~~penalty or one percent per month, or both, interest at the actuarial rate of return may~~ 18 ~~be assessed for each month the contributions are delinquent. If contributions are paid~~ 19 ~~within ninety days of the date the contributions became due, penalty and interest to be~~ 20 ~~paid on delinquent contributions may be waived.~~

21           SECTION 11. CONTINGENT EFFECTIVE DATE - EXPIRATION DATE. Section 7 of this 22 Act becomes effective on the date identified by the executive director of the public employees 23 retirement system in a certification to the legislative council as the effective date of a repeal of 24 sections 4980H(a) and 4980H(b) of the Internal Revenue Code [26 U.S.C. 4980H(a) and 25 490H(b)] or the effective date of an amendment of sections 4980H(a) and 4980H(b) of the 26 Internal Revenue Code [26 U.S.C. 4980H(a) and 490H(b)] resulting in the assessable payments 27 under sections 4980H(a) and 4980H(b) [26 U.S.C. 4980H(a) and 490H(b)] becoming zero 28 dollars. If this certification does not occur before August 1, 2019, Section 7 of this Act expires 29 and is ineffective.
