27 circumstance or proceeding requiring proof of the contents of the official records of the state
28 regarding any information maintained in the state case registry of the automated data 29 processing system established under section 50-09-02.1, may certify the content of those 30 records. A certification provided under this section is prima facie evidence of the contents of 31 those records.

1 SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Section 14-09-08.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
2 amended and reenacted as follows:

3 14-09-08.1. Support payments - Payment to state disbursement unit - Transfer of 4 proceedings for enforcement of decree - Procedures upon failure to pay.

5 1. In any action in which a court orders that payments for child support be made, the 6 court shall provide in its order that the payments be paid to the state disbursement unit 7 for remittance to the obligee.

8 2. a. Each party subject to the order shall immediately inform the state disbursement 9 unit of the party's:

10 (1) Social security number;

11 (2) Residential and mailing addresses and any change of address;

12 (3) Telephone number;

13 (4) Motor vehicle operator's license number;

14 (5) Employer's name, address, and telephone number;

15 (6) Electronic mail address; and

16 (7) Change of any other condition which may affect the proper administration of 17 this chapter.

18 b. Each order for payment of child support must notify each party of the 19 requirements in subdivision a and require the party to provide the information 20 within ten days from the date of the order or ten days after any change in the 21 information.

22 c. In any subsequent child support enforcement or modification action between the 23 parties, upon sufficient showing that diligent effort has been made to ascertain 24 the location of a party, the court shall deem due process requirements for notice 25 and service to have been met, with respect to the noticed party, by delivery of 26 written notice to the most recent residential or employer address provided by the 27 noticed party pursuant to this subsection.

28 d. The requirements of this subsection continue in effect until all child support 29 obligations have been satisfied with respect to each child subject to the order.

30 3. Whenever there is failure to make the payments as required, the clerk of court ~~may~~, 31 ~~and~~ upon request of the obligee or child support agency shall, send notice of the

1 arrears by first-class mail, with affidavit of service, to the person required to make the 2 payments, or request a district judge of the judicial district to issue a citation for 3 contempt of court against the person who has failed to make the payments. The 4 citation may be served on that person by first-class mail with affidavit of service to the 5 person's last-known address.

- 6 4. The court of its own motion or on motion of the child support agency or the state's 7 attorney of the county of venue, the county of the recipient's residence, or the county
8 of the obligor's residence may cause a ~~certified copy of any~~ support order in the action
9 to be transcribed and filed with the clerk of the district court of any county in this state
10 in which the obligee or the obligor may reside from time to time. Thereafter, this 11 section applies as if the support order were issued by the district court of the county to 12 which the support order is transcribed. No fee may be charged for transcribing or filing 13 a ~~certified copy of any~~ support order under this section.

15 amended and reenacted as follows:

16 14-09-08.2. Support for children after majority - Retroactive application.

- 17 1. A judgment or order requiring the payment of child support until the child attains 18 majority continues as to the child until the end of the month during which the child is 19 graduated from high school or attains the age of nineteen years, whichever occurs

25 substantially the circumstances described in subsection 1.
- 26 3. The person to whom the duty of support is owed under either subsection 1 or 2 may 27 file an affidavit with the district court and provide a copy to the child support agency 28 stating that the requirements of subsection 1 are met, the school in which the child is 29 enrolled, and the anticipated date of the child's graduation. Upon filing of the affidavit, 30 the child support resumes pursuant to subsection 1 or pursuant to the terms of a

1 judgment or order described in subsection 2. A fee may not be charged for filing such 2 an affidavit.

3 4. ~~The clerk of court~~child support agency shall serve the affidavit by first-class mail upon 4 the person owing the duty of support. If at any time thereafter the person owing the 5 duty of support files a motion with the court, supported by that person's affidavit that 6 the child is no longer enrolled in or attending high school or is no longer residing with 7 the person to whom the duty of support is owed, the court shall determine if the child is 8 enrolled in and attending high school and residing with the person to whom the duty of 9 support is owed and shall enter an order accordingly.

10 5. This section applies to child support orders concerning children described in 11 subsection 1 or 2, regardless of the date of entry of the order.

12 6. This section does not preclude the entry of an order for child support which continues 13 after the child reaches age eighteen, if the parties agree, or if the court determines the 14 support to be appropriate.

15 7. For purposes of this section:

16 a. A child is treated as being in school during summer vacation if the child was 17 enrolled in and attending school and did not graduate from high school at the end 18 of the school period immediately preceding the summer vacation; and

19 b. A child who is currently enrolled in school is not considered to have graduated, 20 even if all required coursework and examinations have been completed, until the 21 ceremony is held by the school to commemorate the child's graduation.
