GOVERNMENTAL REORGANIZATION, RECORDS MANAGEMENT
STUDY, TRANSFER OF FUNDS

AN ACT

Providing for the implementation of the governmental reorganization by authorizing the emergency commission to transfer funds from departments and agencies relinquishing functions to departments assuming these functions, and by making appropriations for the purpose of establishing and operating a department of accounts and purchases, and declaring an emergency.

Be It Enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of North Dakota:

§ 1. Transfer of Funds.) There is hereby appropriated, and the emergency commission is hereby authorized to transfer on July 1, 1960, funds previously appropriated from the board of auditors, state auditing board, state budget board and the budget director, state auditor, board of administration, state examiner, and the state printer and printing commission to the state department of accounts and purchases, and the state auditor in order to implement the governmental reorganization plan promulgated by the Thirty-sixth Legislative Assembly which considerably varies the functions of the various state departments and agencies.

§ 2. Appropriations.) There is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be expended under the direction of the governor for the purpose of establishing, equipping, and operating a department of accounts and purchases, and a sum of thirty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be expended under the direction of the governor for the purpose of studying and establishing procedures, accounting practices, and the implementation of a program for the department of accounts and purchases, and to provide salaries for the person to be later appointed as director of the department of accounts and purchases and for persons who will later be appointed to other selected positions within the department. The moneys appropriated in this section shall become available for expenditure on July 1, 1959.

§ 3. Records Management and Procedure Study; Appropriation.) There is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the general fund in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose of conducting a records management study of state government including records creation, maintenance and disposal, simplification of office records and procedures and methods of improving the efficiency thereof, the utilization of office and storage space, and such other matters in relation to these subjects as will improve the efficiency of state government. Such study shall be conducted and supervised by a special study committee consisting of the presiding officers of the senate and the house of representatives, the respective majority and minority floor leaders of the senate and the house of representatives, the chairman of the legislative research committee or a member designated by him, and one member of the senate appointed by the president of the senate and one member of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker. The special committee shall select its own chairman.

The special study committee shall be authorized to negotiate a contract with such person, firm or corporation as it may deem necessary to provide professional assistance in carrying out the provisions of this Act and to call upon any state agency, department or institution for such aid, information or assistance as it may deem necessary. Prior to the execution of any contract with any person, firm or corporation for professional assistance, the special committee shall consult with the governor for the purpose of coordinating the study provided for in this section with the study provided for in section 2 of this Act relating to the department of accounts and purchases.

The special committee shall be authorized in its discretion to call upon the staff of the legislative research committee to act as secretary of the special committee and to keep its records and accounts, and to reimburse the legislative research committee for its costs in such regard. Members of the special committee shall receive per diem and expense allowances from the appropriation provided herein in the same amount and same manner provided by law for members of the legislative research committee.

The special committee shall be empowered to direct the various departments, agencies and institutions of this state to take immediate action to implement recommendations forthcoming from such study in all cases where such recommendations are not contrary to present law, or impossible of execution under existing laws.

The special committee shall complete its study not later than November 1, 1960, and shall make its report to the Thirty-seventh Legislative Assembly, which report shall be accompanied by suitable legislation to carry out the recommendations made by the special committee which would require special legislation for their implementation.

§ 4. Emergency.) This Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval.

Approved March 14, 1959.
