SCR 4010

Jim Ployhar was a true musician – writer, composer, arranger, singer, piano player, band director, comedian and historian.

If you ever played in a junior high band, you played band music composed or arranged by James D Ployhar. If you lived in Lakota, Valley City or Fargo, perhaps you played in one of his bands. Mr. Ployhar was a regular at the International Music Camp and kids loved to play his music and in his bands. Over his lifetime, it is estimated that he wrote over 800 compositions.

Jim founded and for many years directed the Fargo Theater Big Band All-Stars. He arranged music from earlier years that was no longer in print and wrote scripts to keep the show flowing. He was also the original director of the Fargo Theater Singers.

His band and singers performed annually at events such as Silent Movie Night at the Fargo Theater, Valley City High School class reunions, Fargo Elks, NDSU alumni 50th anniversary, Dollars for Scholars events, charity events, etc.

In 1975 the Legislative Assembly passed HB No 1160, which designated James D Ployhar's Spirit of the Land as the official state march (1975 SL ch. 462). Mr. Ployhar had been commissioned by the North Dakota Band Directors Association to compose a march appropriate for official state functions. Spirit of the Land was played in the Capitol's Great Hall by the Jamestown High School Band on the day the bill passed the House of Representatives in February 1975. Once designated as the state march, Spirit of the Land was sent to a publisher. The title happened to be nearly identical to another march. As a result, the publisher requested that a new title be selected. Mr. Ployhar agreed to "The Flickertail", a concert march. In 1989 the Legislative Assembly finally officially approved the change. In 1989 he also wrote the Centennial Overture in honor of our state's celebration.

Since this resolution was written I have found out that Mr. Ployhar was awarded the Governor's Award for the Arts in 1995. Last November, VCSU honored Jim as the first enrollee in the VCSU Music Hall of Fame. Although seriously ill, he made the trip to Valley City for the event.

Jim died on January 2. He is survived by wife Ruth, 5 children, 11 grandchildren and 1 great grandson. Jim's funeral was January 6. It was truly a celebration with a 9th grade band playing his music, "The Lord's Prayer" sung by a grandson, and a mini-big band to lead him out to lead the eternal big band. As stated in the media, "It was a grand celebration of Jim Ployhar's musical life".
